General Policy The Personnel Program

1. GENERAL

This Regulation states the personnel policy of the Central Intelligence Agency within the authority granted the Director in the National Security Act of 1947 and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949. It defines the intent of the Agency toward the groups of personnel who work in fundamentally different relationships with the Agency and outlines the basic objectives of the Agency's personnel program.

2. POLICY

The effectiveness of the Central Intelligence Agency is entirely dependent upon the productive efforts of its personnel. The Agency utilizes the services of individuals under a wide variety of circumstances which determine their fundamental relationships with the Agency. The following primary categories of personnel reflect these differences and define the intent of the Agency toward personnel in each category. These categories and statements of basic policy objectives serve as the framework for more detailed personnel policy and procedures.
